

Annual Report 2020-21

Introduction:

In the academic year 2020-21, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College has seen an unprecedented surge in activities, surpassing the achievements of previous years. Established in 2012, our IQAC has become a key driver of quality enhancement within the institution. Throughout the past year, we've organized various workshops, seminars, and initiatives to improve academic and administrative standards. Our dedication to excellence has propelled us to address challenges and capitalize on growth opportunities. As we look forward, the IQAC remains committed to advancing the institution's mission, guiding Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College toward a future of innovation, excellence, and continuous improvement.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME ON

"DIGITAL HORIZONS: NAVIGATING THE FUTURE OF EDUCATION IN THE DIGITAL AGE"

REPORT

Date: 01-06-2020 to 09-06-2020

In response to the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College (KFASC) organized a seven-day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) titled "Digital Horizons: Navigating the Future of Education in the Digital Age." Conducted entirely online via Zoom, this FDP aimed to equip faculty members with the necessary skills to effectively utilize Zoom and Edmodo (LMS) for online teaching. The program saw active participation from 52(47 teaching and 5 non teaching) faculty members, who were eager to adapt to new teaching methodologies required by the current global situation.

The program commenced on June 1, 2020, with an online registration and welcome session at 9:00 AM. This was followed by an inaugural session that included a series of addresses. Mr. Muhammed Safwan, the IQAC Coordinator, delivered the welcome speech, setting a positive tone for the event. Mr. Mohammed Labeeb, Vice Principal, highlighted the significance of adapting to digital teaching tools in his presidential address. The official inauguration was conducted by Prof. M Abdul Azeez, Principal, who underscored the importance of digital education in these times. The session also featured felicitations by Mr. Mubarak N (Staff Secretary), Mr. Sreenath M (HOD, Department of English), and Mrs. Nafeesa P (HOD, Department of Economics), followed by a vote of thanks from Mrs. Beenamol N S (Asst. Professor, Department of Mathematics). Mr. Rashid Ahammed, System Admin at KFASC, then provided an overview of various online teaching tools, emphasizing their transformative potential for education.

On the second day, the focus shifted to mastering Zoom functionalities. The morning session, led by Mohammed Hashim K T, IT Admin at Reneco International Wildlife Consultant in Kazakhstan, covered scheduling meetings and managing participants. This session provided practical tips on organizing and managing virtual classes. In the afternoon, Mr. Mohammed Riyas T, IT Admin at INFOTECH, Ernakulam, discussed using Zoom for lectures, including screen sharing, whiteboards, and annotations, thereby enhancing interactive teaching methods.

The third day delved into advanced Zoom features and best practices. Mr. Binoy, IT Admin at Accenture, Coimbatore, started the day with a session on security and privacy settings in Zoom, addressing critical aspects of maintaining secure and private virtual classrooms. This was followed by a session on best practices for effective online teaching by Mr. Mohammed Haneefa K T, Software Admin at KFASC, who shared strategies for maximizing student engagement. The day concluded with an interactive Q&A session facilitated by Mr. Mohammed Anas, IT Admin at Beutymark Gold & Diamonds, CollegePadi, which addressed participants' queries and troubleshooting common issues.

Day four introduced participants to Edmodo, a popular learning management system. Mr. Rashid Ahammed introduced LMS and highlighted the importance of these systems in modern education. In the subsequent session, Mr. Mohammed Haneefa K T presented an overview of Edmodo, showcasing its features and benefits for managing courses and student interactions.

On the fifth day, the sessions focused on utilizing Edmodo for classroom management. Mohammed Hashim K T demonstrated how to create and manage courses on Edmodo efficiently. This was followed by a session on assignments, quizzes, and grade book functionalities led by Mr. Mohammed Riyas T, which provided a detailed walkthrough on creating assessments and managing grades on Edmodo.

The sixth day explored advanced Edmodo features and best practices. Mr. Fasalurahiman, IT Admin at KINFRA, Kakkanchery, discussed the communication tools available in Edmodo, including messages, notifications, and forums, and how they can be used for effective communication. Mr. Binoy then shared insights on best practices for LMS integration, emphasizing a seamless educational experience. The day ended with another Q&A session facilitated by Mr. Rashid Ahammed, addressing participants' concerns and challenges.

The final day of the FDP focused on the integration and practical application of Zoom and Edmodo. Mr. Mohammed Anas guided participants through the process of creating a complete course using both platforms. The program concluded with a feedback session, where participants shared their experiences and provided feedback on the FDP. This session emphasized continuous improvement and adaptation to digital teaching tools.

The FDP successfully concluded with a valedictory session, where certificates were distributed to all participants. The program empowered faculty members with the skills and confidence to navigate the digital landscape of education. The positive feedback from participants underscored the program's success and its pivotal role in enhancing the digital teaching capabilities of KFASC's faculty. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College remains committed to supporting faculty development and adapting to the evolving educational environment.

PROGRAMMES CONDUCTED

CAPTION CONTEST

The Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College, through its NSS Unit 213, organized a caption contest on May 19, running from 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM. The event was designed to engage students in creative expression, where participants were invited to create a caption based on an image depicting a stark contrast between social realities—showcasing a man taking a selfie while holding groceries in front of a struggling family.

The contest required participants to submit their captions via WhatsApp to the provided numbers, and captions could be written in either English or Malayalam. Participants needed to include their name, semester, and department with their submissions. The best captions were to be rewarded with prizes, encouraging active participation and thoughtful engagement with the theme.

This event highlighted the importance of social awareness among students, prompting them to think critically about societal issues and express their perspectives creatively. The competition not only provided a platform for students to showcase their wit and creativity but also served as a medium to raise awareness about the social disparities reflected in the image.

ENVIRONMENTAL DAY INTER COLLEGIATE QUIZ COMPETITION

On June 5, 2020, in celebration of Environment Day, the NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College organized a quiz competition aimed at raising awareness about environmental issues. The event saw enthusiastic student participation across various colleges, making it a highly competitive and engaging experience.

Thaha Uwais from Areekode College emerged as the winner, securing the first prize with his exceptional performance. Other participants who delivered commendable performances included Muhammed Luqman, Libiya Fazil, and Salman K.P. Their active involvement and knowledge highlighted the students' commitment to environmental awareness.

The quiz competition served as an educational platform and encouraged students to deepen their understanding of environmental issues and the importance of sustainable practices. The event was a successful endeavor by the NSS Unit 213, reinforcing its role in fostering awareness and encouraging positive action among the youth concerning environmental conservation.

A WEBINAR ON WASTE MANAGEMENT

On July 29, 2020, the NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts & Science College hosted a webinar on waste management. The event was conducted on the Zoom platform, with the participation of 68 students, primarily from the first and second-year NSS members. The webinar took place from 2:00 PM onwards and was a significant initiative to address environmental concerns during the ongoing pandemic.

Mr. Jyothish Manassery, the District Programme Officer and Suchitwa Mission Programme Officer for Malappuram was the keynote speaker for the session. His presentation provided an in-depth review of the latest research published in the Waste Management and Research (WM&R) journal. Mr. Manassery's talk emphasized the key challenges faced in waste management, especially in the context of the pandemic, and proposed strategies for effective waste handling.

The webinar was both informative and engaging, offering students insights into the complexities of waste management and the importance of adopting sustainable practices. It was a successful event that not only expanded the participants' knowledge but also encouraged them to consider the implications of waste management in their daily lives. This initiative by NSS Unit 213 underscores the college's commitment to environmental education and sustainability.

"SADAKKO-DRAWING COMPETITION"

On August 9, 2020, the NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts & Science College organized an inter-college drawing competition titled "Sadako," commemorating the Hiroshima bomb blast. The event aimed to honor the memory of the victims of the Hiroshima tragedy and to raise awareness about the horrors of nuclear warfare through artistic expression.

The competition required participants to create a drawing on the theme of the Hiroshima bomb blast. Entrants were asked to record a video of themselves working on their artwork and send it, along with a photograph of the final piece, by the specified deadline of 8:00 PM on August 9th. The competition was open to students from various colleges, encouraging a broad range of participants.

Participants were instructed to use traditional drawing methods, as digital tools and apps were not permitted for the competition. The event organizers provided contact information for submissions and inquiries, ensuring smooth communication throughout the process.

"Sadako" was not just a drawing competition; it was a poignant reminder of the devastating impact of war and a call to reflect on the importance of peace. Through this creative initiative, the NSS Unit 213 succeeded in engaging students in a meaningful way, fostering both artistic talent and historical awareness.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

On August 15, 2020, the NSS Unit of Kottakkal Farook Arts & Science College celebrated Independence Day by organizing a quiz competition exclusively for NSS volunteers. This event, held annually to honor India's independence, was conducted online through Google Forms, starting at 8:00 PM. The quiz focused on India's history, culture, and the significance of Independence Day.

The competition allowed volunteers to test their knowledge while fostering a sense of patriotism and unity. This initiative by the NSS Unit demonstrated the college's commitment to celebrating national pride, even amidst challenging circumstances.

On August 31, 2020, NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College, celebrated Onam uniquely and innovatively under the banner 'Adangi Ninnonam.' Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the festivities were conducted online, but this did not dampen the spirits of the participants. The NSS volunteers came together to organize a series of events that captured the essence of Onam while adhering to safety protocols.

The celebrations kicked off on August 31st with a Poem Writing Competition. The theme "Ponnonavum Coronayum" was thoughtfully chosen to reflect the blend of tradition and the current pandemic situation. The competition was open exclusively to NSS volunteers, who had from 7 AM to 11 PM to submit their entries.

Following this, on September 1st, a Debate Competition titled "New Onam vs. Old Onam" was held. Group 3 organized the debate, where the participants passionately discussed the contrasts between traditional and modern Onam celebrations. The "Old Onam" team emerged victorious, with Rashida T.T. earning special recognition for her outstanding performance.

On September 2nd, a Purana Story Writing Competition was conducted by Group 2, centered around the legend of "Maveli and Vamana." Participants were tasked with writing a short story in Malayalam, not exceeding 150 words. This contest highlighted the volunteers' creativity and deep understanding of Onam's cultural significance.

The celebrations concluded on September 7th with a fast-paced competition called "Sticker Finder." Contestants were given thirty seconds to complete the task, and Group 2 emerged as the winners with their exceptional performance.

Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, the NSS Unit 213 successfully organized a memorable and engaging Onam celebration. 'Adangi Ninnonam' was a testament to the volunteers' dedication and unity, making it a grand success.

NSS DAY CELEBRATION

NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College organized a series of events to commemorate NSS Day in 2020. Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, the unit successfully engaged its volunteers in meaningful activities conducted virtually via WhatsApp and Zoom.

The celebrations kicked off on 24th September 2020 with a Quiz Competition organized by the members of NSS Group 4. Held at 8:00 PM on WhatsApp, this contest was exclusively for the NSS volunteers of Farook College. The quiz tested the participants' knowledge and was met with enthusiastic participation, setting a lively tone for the upcoming events.

Simultaneously, on the same day, the NSS unit conducted the "Captured Memories" program. This unique initiative allowed volunteers to share their cherished experiences in NSS through photos and written memories. The program provided a nostalgic platform for volunteers to reflect on their journey, fostering a strong sense of community.

The celebrations continued on 26th September 2020 with the "One Year Back NSS (Ricordi Reloading)" event, organized by NSS Group 1. Conducted at 10:00 AM via Zoom, this live chat session featured interactions between current volunteers and members of the previous NSS batch. The program highlighted the enduring impact of NSS on its participants and allowed for the sharing of invaluable experiences and lessons learned.

On 27th September 2020, the program "Anubhava Kuripp" was held, organized by NSS Group 2. The event, named "Oramakalilude," took place at 11:00 PM via WhatsApp and focused on discussing the experiences of NSS volunteers. The session provided an opportunity for reflection and discussion on potential improvements for future initiatives.

ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

As part of the Gandhi Jayanti celebrations on October 2, 2020, an essay competition was organized, inviting students to write about Gandhiji's life and philosophy. The competition encouraged deep reflection on the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and their relevance in today's world. The winners, Rashida, Sarika, Musharafali, and Rimshida, were acknowledged for their insightful essays that captured the essence of Gandhian thought. This event provided students with a platform to express their understanding of important social values and contributed to their intellectual development.

WORD CROSS PUZZLE COMPETITION

On 2nd October 2020, Kottakkal Farook College NSS Unit organized a Word Cross Puzzle Competition in celebration of Gandhi Jayanti. The event aimed to engage students in a fun and educational activity that honored the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi. The competition saw active participation from NSS volunteers, showcasing their enthusiasm and knowledge. Hrishika emerged as the winner of the competition, demonstrating exceptional skill and creativity. The event was a success, contributing to the ongoing efforts of the NSS unit to promote learning and reflection on important historical figures and values.

CANCER MOTIVATIONAL MESSAGE COMPETITION

On 6th November 2020, NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College organized a Cancer Motivational Message Competition. This event aimed to inspire and support cancer patients through heartfelt and empowering messages crafted by students from Group 3 of the NSS unit.

Participants were tasked with creating motivational messages that could uplift the spirits of cancer patients. The competition encouraged students to engage in empathy-driven creativity, fostering a deeper understanding of the emotional challenges faced by those battling cancer.

The messages were evaluated based on relevance, originality, and impact. After careful consideration, Ameena Swaliha and Keerthi Krishna were declared the winners, recognized for their outstanding contributions that resonated with hope and resilience.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

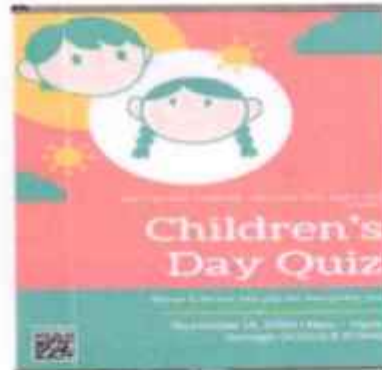

On November 14, 2020, despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the NSS unit successfully organized a quiz competition to celebrate Children's Day. The competition saw enthusiastic participation, with Sinsiya, Ameena Swaliha, and Rashida emerging as the winners. This event highlighted the unit's commitment to fostering educational growth and intellectual curiosity among students, even during difficult times. The celebration of Children's Day served as a reminder of the importance of nurturing the younger generation and providing them with opportunities to learn and grow.

NSS SPECIAL CAMP 2020-21

In response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, NSS Unit 213 of Kottakkal Farook Arts and Science College organized a seven-day virtual camp, "CLOCK," from December 22nd to December 28th, 2020. The decision to conduct the camp online was a precautionary measure due to the pandemic, and the entire camp was successfully held on the Zoom platform.

Day 1 - Inaugural Ceremony (22/12/2020)

The camp commenced on December 22nd, with an inaugural ceremony presided over by Parapur Ward Member Mrs. Fasna Abid. The NSS anthem was performed by the volunteers, followed by a welcome speech from NSS Program Officer, Suhail Sir. Principal Professor M. Abdul Aziz delivered the presidential address, and Vice Principal Mohammad Labib Sir extended his greetings. The session concluded with a vote of thanks by NSS Volunteer Secretary, Al Ameen.

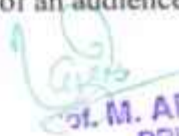

Day 2 - Fitness Awareness Session (23/12/2020)

On the second day, a fitness awareness session was conducted by physical trainer Muhammad Haneefa Sir. The session emphasized the importance of regular exercise and a balanced diet, especially during the lockdown period. Volunteers learned about the significance of maintaining physical health through proper nutrition, exercise, and rest.

Day 3 - Ice Breaking Session (24/12/2020)

The third day featured an ice-breaking session led by Shameem C., an All-India level JCI trainer. The session was designed to help participants overcome the fear of public speaking. It provided volunteers with practical strategies to build confidence and effectively communicate in front of an audience.

Day 4 - Interactive Session: "Teacharum Kuttyaalum" (25/12/2020)

An interactive session titled "Teacharum Kuttyaalum" was held on the fourth day, where participants had the opportunity to engage with Principal Professor M. Abdul Aziz. The principal shared his experiences and insights about the college, highlighting the efforts made by the faculty to provide a conducive learning environment. The session underscored the dedication and hard work of the teaching staff, inspiring students to strive for excellence.

Day 5 - COVID-19 Awareness Program: "Kovidinoppam" (26/12/2020)

On December 26th, Dr. Fasal Thangal, Medical Officer at the Family Health Center, Kottakkal, conducted an awareness program on COVID-19. The session provided valuable information on precautionary measures, including proper hand hygiene, mask usage, and social distancing. Dr. Thangal also discussed the importance of community action in combating the pandemic, stressing the need for unity and vigilance.

Day 6 - Interactive Session on Forest Trekking (27/12/2020)

The sixth day featured an interactive session on forest trekking led by Divin Murukesh, a PhD fellow at Mambad MES College. The session focused on the importance of environmental conservation and the protection of wildlife. Mr. Murukesh highlighted the impact of human activities on the environment and the necessity of adopting sustainable practices.

Day 7 - COVID-19 Survey and Cultural Program (28/12/2020)

The final day of the camp involved a COVID-19 impact assessment survey conducted by the volunteers in their local communities. Using a Google Form, volunteers gathered information on how households were coping with the pandemic. The survey revealed that while 80% of households were adhering to COVID-19 protocols, 20% required further awareness and guidance. The day concluded with a cultural program featuring a performance by Troll Maker Ubaid Ibrahim, adding a festive touch to the camp's closing.

NSS VEGETABLE GARDEN

One of the major initiatives was the establishment of a kitchen garden on the college campus. The NSS volunteers cultivated poison less, organic vegetables in this garden, promoting healthy eating habits and sustainable farming practices. The vegetables harvested from this garden were distributed among students, faculty, and local community members, highlighting the importance of organic produce and environmental responsibility.

Despite the challenges posed by the ongoing pandemic, NSS Unit 213 successfully carried out its programs, making a meaningful impact on both the college and the surrounding community. The unit remains committed to its mission of serving society and promoting sustainable practices.

Dr. Raveendran detailed solid-state, gas, semiconductor, and dye lasers, using real-world examples. An interactive session fostered a vibrant exchange of ideas, highlighting the institution’s commitment to knowledge dissemination and intellectual discourse.

2. Webinar on “Career Opportunities In Science “

The PG Department of Physics organized a webinar on “Career Opportunities In Science” on March 3, 2021, featuring Dr. Basheer MC from PSMO College Thirurangadi. The event aimed to guide students on diverse career paths in science, covering traditional and emerging fields. Dr. Basheer discussed practical applications, real-world impacts, and interdisciplinary opportunities in science. An interactive Q&A session allowed students to engage directly with the speaker. The webinar successfully provided students with valuable insights into scientific careers, encouraging informed decisions about their academic and professional futures.
